UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

IN RE:

DELPHI CORPORATION,

Debtor.

Case No. 05-44481-RDD

Chapter 11

Judge Robert D. Drain

(Jointly Administered)

RESPONSE OF RICK L. SIZEMORE TO DEBTORS' FIRST OMNIBUS OBJECTION

Rick L. Sizemore responds to Debtors' First Omnibus Objection Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 102(1) And §502(b) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002(m), 9006, 9007, And 9014 to Certain (I) Duplicate and Amended Claims and (II) Equity Claims filed on September 19, 2006. Debtors object to Claim No. 14014 filed by respondent on July 31, 2006 in the amount of $211,330.38 with the Basis of Objection equal to Equity. This claim should be allowed priority claim in the amount of $211,330.38. This was not "Common Stock. The Delphi Corporation et al eliminated this representation prior to by Date of Claim ". This claim was a mutual fund based on Delphi Common Stock. This mutual fund was owned and operated by Delphi and in the interest of Delphi. Monies were paid to Delphi for shares of the Mutual Fund. The shares were replaced by units which tracked "Common Stock" share pricing on Open Market minus administration expenses and cash retentions. These units were not afforded the basis of "Common Stock", certificates were not available, and could not be transferred as "Common Stock" to other entities.

Additional reference:

As per the Delphi Corporation's Statement Definitions:

"Shares" = "Shares are your units of ownership of investments in your account" (not stock)

"Units" = "Your interest in your company stock fund is expressed in units not shares. The value of each unit is determined by dividing the number of units outstanding. Unitization is a method that combines common stock with short term investments. The short term investment portion of the fund enables stock fund trading every business day, similar to mutual funds rather than the typical three day settlement period which occurs when stock is traded on the open market. Unitization does not affect the initial market value of your ownership in company stock only the manner in which it is expressed."

Rick L. Sizemore has the "ultimate authority to reconcile, settle, or otherwise resolve" this dispute on behalf of himself. His address is 6595 Westminster Road, East Amherst, New York 14051.
